

CHUCK EDWARD JOHNSON

Help us Keep this cold blooded
child murderer Behind Bars

www.justiceforbrittanylynn.com
The Story Told by Brittany's Mom

On Saturday October 9, 1993 was the last day with Brittany. We had breakfast, worked around the house and yard, went shopping and Darin have to go to a footb game. When Britt and I got home Chuck was around in and out. Britt and I ate then she got ready for bed. This was the last time I hugged and kissed her as she went to sleep in her new big girl bed. Heather came by to keep me company while Darin was gone. Darin got home late and we talked to Steve and Chuck for a f minutes and went to bed. We had plans for Sunday and Brittany was going to grandmas.

On Sunday October 10, 1993 Brittany came in our room about 7:30ish. She was still sleepy and we told her to go back to bed. She never came back to our room. We went back to sleep. Then just before the alarm was due to go off at 9:00am we heard a loud noise. Darin got up first, and then I got up. We could not find Brittany.....Then within an hour we are told she is dead.

We spent the next 2-½ years waiting for justice to be served. We always had someone at court for every little hearing. Then finally the day came and we started th trial, he was found guilty of 1st degree murder, and then sentenced 25 to life.

This had such a great impact on all our family and friends and to this day still dose. We knew this day would come but not this soon. Chuck Johnson needs to be ir prison for the rest of his life.

Why Should Chuck Johnson Remain In Prison

1. He was sentenced to 25 years to Life.
2. He has a violent past even before he murdered Brittany Lynn Rethorn- Riggs.
3. Johnson's prior performance on probation was unsatisfactory.
4. Johnson was on probation at the time he murdered Brittany Lynn Rethorn-Riggs.
5. The crime involved great violence and great bodily harm resulting in death, and other acts disclosing a high degree of cruelty, viciousness and callousness.
6. Johnson's victim was vulnerable.
7. Johnson took advantage of a position of trust and/or confidence to commit the crime.
8. Johnson has shown no remorse.
9. If paroled, it would only be a matter of time before Johnson strikes again.
10. The manner in which the crime was carried out indicates planning, sophistication.
11. Johnson inflicted physical and emotional injury resulting in death.
12. The thought of someone with such a known violent past frightens a lot of people.
13. Johnson has engaged in violent conduct, which indicates a serious danger to society.
14. Johnson's prior convictions as an adult are increasing seriousness.

Brittany Lynn Rethorn-Riggs Age 3